(READING)

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Passage-I-It happened some fifty years ago. Ramu was in the fifth standard at the government school Kambelpur, now called Atak. One day, he went to school with four rupees in his pocket to pay the school fees and fund. When he reached school he found that the teacher who collected the fees, Master Gulam Mohammad, was on leave and so the fees would be collected the next day. All through the day the coins simply sat in his pocket, but once school got over and he was outside, they began to speak.

One coin said. "What are you thinking about? Those fresh, hot Jalebis coming out of the Kadhao in the shop over there, they are not coming out for nothing. Jalebis are meant to be eaten and only those with money in their pocket can eat them".
